Sunday Night at Central on April 16

Your Missions and Outreach Team is hosting a talent night on Sunday April 16 at 7 p.m. to fundraise for the Cambridge Self-Help Food Bank. Most of the talent presented will be from our very own congregation. Free will offerings and food items will be gladly accepted. Refreshments will be offered during the intermission. It will be a fun night, so invite your family and friends along.

Our Special Easter Sunday Food Drive for the Food Bank takes place today!

Please place the donated items in the many containers available at each entrance to the church today.

What a wonderful way to share our blessings by blessing others.

CELEBRATION WEEKEND MAY 6-7

Stewardship Seminar @ Central Saturday, April 29th 9.30am-11.00am

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.
II Corinthians 8:7

Be an Informed Giver

Did you know that it is possible to give more, for less?! When you transfer publicly traded securities to the church as a gift-in-kind, you can give a larger gift for less money than cashing the securities and giving the proceeds. It's win, win: the church receives more and it costs you less. Come share breakfast with Karen Plater, Associate Secretary for Stewardship and Planned Giving at the Presbyterian Church in Canada's national office and learn the many different tax-efficient ways you can leave a gift to the church. We look forward to seeing you on Saturday April 29 from 9:30 – 11:00.

To register for the seminar contact the office by email office@cpcmail.ca or phone 519-623-1080.
