What joy it was to worship with you this evening. To kneel before the Son of God, who went from commanding angels to sleeping in straw, from holding stars, to clutching Mary's finger. Our prayer is that you will hear His call and experience the transformation that he brings. That you will know Immanuel and know that our God is with us.

In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
