Commission-free Week for Gifts of Securities: June 3-6

June 3-6, 2024 is the next commission-free week offered by the PCC's stock broker, Scotia McLeod. During this time, gifts valued under $10,000 CAD or $10,000 USD will be sold without a commission fee. (The normal commission is $140 for gifts under $6,000; $175 for gifts between $6,001 and $9,999.) Multiple sales of the same stock that together exceed $10,000 are not eligible, but people can donate more than $10,000 with multiple stocks each valued under $10,000.

To take advantage of this commission-free offer, securities must be in the PCC account by the end of the day on Thursday June 6, 2024. Securities donated prior to June 3, will be sold during the commission free week with the donor's written instructions. The receipt will still reflect the market value of the stock on the day the securities were deposited into the PCC account, and the beneficiary will receive the proceeds (plus/minus any gain/loss) of the stock sale.

NOTE: These commission-free weeks occur quarterly, but we never have the exact dates until a few weeks before. We anticipate another commission-free week in September and one more in early December.

“FILL THE JAR” STARTS TODAY!

Our annual summer food challenge for the Cambridge Food Bank begins TODAY!

Central Church is challenged to “FILL THE JAR”

with 1000 jars of PEANUT BUTTER between June 1 & Labour Day.

The Cambridge Food Bank is seeing a continued increase in the number of clients dependant on the Food Bank for basic food items. Peanut butter is a high protein, nutritious food item that the Food Bank often needs to stock up on. Let's help them fill up their shelves this summer!

Monetary donations are also welcome and can be made through your offering envelope, by etransfer to office@cpcmail.ca or through the link on our website.
