Volunteering at Central

Today we are acknowledging all of the many volunteers who do so much to make Central Church the wonderful place that it is. People who give of their time and talents are the cornerstone of any organization and Central is no different. We very much appreciate everything volunteers do.

In addition, we are launching our new Volunteer Opportunities Directory. Many people have said they would like to volunteer but are not sure what is available or how to start. Hopefully this new directory will answer some of those questions. As you will see as you read through the directory, there are items which can meet anyone's interest and time availability. Some things happen every Sunday, some once a year. If you enjoy meeting and chatting with people, there are ways to do that. If you prefer doing things on your own from your own home, there are ways to do that.

This fall, each week in the bulletin we will highlight an area where volunteers make such a difference. The directory is available today, if you have not received your copy, please see a member of our welcome team.

We hope this directory will be helpful. Please use it to give some thought to volunteering and how you might contribute to the life and work of this congregation.

"Book Club for Adults - Sep 2024-April 2025"

Are you interested in digging deeper into some excellent Christian reading? From September - April, join with others from the Renovare organization in reading together. We read and discuss 4 books, hear from some of the authors in a Q&A format, listen to podcasts, and interact in a secure online forum.

We'll have one monthly meeting in person if we have enough people to join. The books are: Celebration of Discipline (Richard Foster), Worth Celebrating (Mimi Dixon), The Narrow Path (Rich Villodas), and Abandonment to Divine Providence (Jean-Pierre de Caussade). For more information, contact Carolyn Witzke at 519-620-7346 or carolynwitzke@gmail.com.
